

Sample Typeset

Xulon Press will typeset the interior of your book according to the Chicago Manual of Style method of document formatting, which is the publishing industry standard.

The sample attached is only an example of a standard typeset and is how most books are formatted, unless otherwise requested by the author.

Please see our guidelines on our website,
www.xulonpress.com for further details.

There are usually two blank pages after the Copyright page - so that all of the "front matter" or "front pages" land on the right side of the book.

Table of Contents

Introduction .....	vii
Heading Title One .....	9
Heading Title Two .....	12

Blank pages do not display page numbers...though the numbers are still implied.

All “Front Matter” or beginning pages before the first chapter are numbered by using Roman Numerals and always start on the right.

The images under the Heading are called “glyphs” and are chosen by the typesetter to customize the look and feel of your book.

Blank pages keep all “front matter” or pages before the first chapter to the right of the book.

For best image quality your submitted images must be 300 dpi and sized to fit within the margins in the book. (Example: the trim for this book is 5.5"x8.5" - the margins are .75". The images shown are 4" wide at 300 dpi.)

*Example of a landscape-oriented image:
(short sides on the left and right)*

Landscape images may need to be reduced or cropped to fit within margins.

*Example of a portrait-oriented image:
(short sides on the top and bottom)*

Books always end with an even number of pages. (And always end with a blank page. So it will either end with one or two blank pages.)
